ORDER:

In the reference 1st read above, the Government of Andhra Pradesh has launched "YSR Cheyutha" scheme as part of its "Navaratnalu" welfare programs in the State. Under this scheme, a financial assistance of Rs.75000/- will be provided to Women between the age group of 45-60 years.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, the Panchayat Raj and Rural Development Department has informed that YSR Cheyutha is a holistic scheme which aims to bring together multiple stakeholders across agri-business, retail, animal husbandry and other business houses along with the financial Institutions, to steer over 21.69 lakh Women beneficiaries towards social and economic empowerment. As such, the government has already entered into partnerships with multinational companies such as Amul, Hindustan Unilever Ltd., ITC Ltd., Procter & Gamble, Reliance Retail, Reliance Jio Infocom Ltd., and Allana Group to support the identified beneficiaries across dairy, retail business and meat export & processing sectors.

3. Out of 21.69 Lakh beneficiaries, 1.46 lakhs Women opted for Retail business in partnership with aforesaid Companies. To rollout Retail outlets, the unit cost is worked out at Rs.75,000/- each, out of which Rs.18,750/- were already released to the beneficiaries and instructed to avail the balance of Rs.56,250/- from the Banks. As a part of bank loan process, the beneficiary has to enter into loan agreement with the Bank and partner Company on Stamp paper as per norms.

4. The Panchayat Raj and Rural Development Department has therefore, requested to exempt all the Cheyutha scheme Women beneficiaries (Retail) from payment of Stamp Duty on Bank loan documents, to avoid additional financial burden on beneficiaries.

P.T.O
